3 EXPOSURE & RISK QUESTIONS — RIDER REQUIREMENTS, MODIFICATIONS & INSPECTIONS

In 2022, a 14-year-old fell from a 430-foot Orlando drop tower after operators adjusted restraint sensors to fit larger riders and the weight limit wasn't posted. The owner and park settled, and a jury awarded $310 million against the manufacturer. Florida now requires redundant restraints and state inspections for rides over 100 feet.

6 SIGNATURE & FRAUD WARNING

The undersigned declares that the statements and answers given in this supplemental are true, complete and correct to the best of their knowledge, and that no material fact has been withheld or misstated. The applicant agrees that this supplemental, together with all ACORD applications and attachments, forms the basis of any submission to insurers and may be relied upon by them. Signing this supplemental does not bind coverage. This supplemental is an intake document prepared by Cory Washington & Co. LLC to support carrier submission; it does not itself provide coverage.

FRAUD NOTICE: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, may be committing a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and may subject such person to criminal and civil penalties. State-specific fraud warnings appear on the insurer's application.
